

ABOUT MIZORAM

Mizoram, the 23rd State of India, also known as the 'Land of the Hill people', is a vibrant state in Northeast India. It shares international boundaries with Myanmar and Bangladesh. Mizoram occupies the highest literacy rates in India, and is remarkably progressive and peaceful. This has created a socially conscious population that leads the country in civic discipline and gender equality.

ABOUT AIZAWL

Aizawl, formerly known as Aijal is the capital of Mizoram and a home to the Mizo tribe, who follow a strong, communal code of ethics known as Tlawngaihna which emphasizes hospitality, kindness, and selflessness. Christianity is predominantly practiced by the people. Aizawl has become more accessible as Bairabi-Sairang Railway is fully operational and served as the Primary gateway. Lengpui Airport (AJL), situated 32 kilometres from the city, ensures air connectivity.

ABOUT IASE MIZORAM

The Institute of Advanced Studies in Education, formerly known as College of Teacher Education, is the premier Teacher Education Institution in Mizoram. It has evolved from a basic training centre into a high level research and education. IASE is affiliated to Mizoram University and is recognised by NCTE currently offering B.Ed., M.Ed. and Ph.D. courses. It is the only government institute in the state that offers Doctoral Degree in Education.

It also functions as a major hub for distance learning in different streams of study through IGNOU Study Centre. It has a NAAC 'B' grade accreditation in its third cycle.
